

The first round of the 2024 Cambs road race league took place yesterday, with Laura and the team welcoming us to a windy Thorney 10k, which also incorporated the County 10k championships. A fast start for everyone with a bit of a shock at the halfway point, when turning back into the wind for the run to the finish. David Hudson (Hunts AC) used his marathon strength to his advantage, pulling out a lead over fellow club mate James Orrell despite the wind to take the overall victory with Scott Cameron (Helpston) taking the final step on the podium. Lucy Mapp (Hunts AC) took the victory in the female category, over fellow club member Marcela Gracova with Maggie Skinner (PANVAC) taking third overall.
